

Mr. Joe/Joseph M. Selden

Curriculum Vitae

Updated: July 6, 2018

The Pennsylvania State University
CM - Journalism
0208C CARNEGIE BLDG
(814) 863-6081
Email: JQS1@psu.edu

Education

ABD, all but dissertation, The Pennsylvania State University, Education, University Park, PA, 2005.

Major: Counseling Education
Supporting Areas of Emphasis: Higher Education
Dissertation Title: pending

MS, Syracuse University, College of Education, Syracuse, New York, 1976.

Major: Guidance and Counseling
Supporting Areas of Emphasis: Counseling at the college level

BS, Oklahoma State University, Arts and Sciences, Stillwater, Oklahoma, 1973.

Major: Aerospace Studies
Supporting Areas of Emphasis: Sociology

Administrative Assignments

Assistant Dean, College. (January 1, 2014 - January 1, 2015).

Professional Positions

Military

Lieutenant Colonel, US Air Force Pentagon, VA 20330. (July 1, 1985 - October 1, 2001).

Responsible for all Air Force communications and information plans, architectures and processes. Leads Air Force-wide concept development and implementation of communications and information services and solutions. Ensures communications and information system architectures meet operational needs. Provides staff support to Air Force Chief Information Officer. Reports directly to HQ USAF--selectively manned.

Developed and implements policy for organizational alignment, structure, and manning of all Air Force communications and information activities to meet Air Force mission needs. Articulates communications and information organizational policy and actions to DOD agencies and Air Staff organizations. Provides expertise in the development and continued integration of information management and the communications-computer career fields.

Lieutenant Colonel, US Air Force Pentagon, VA 20330. (July 1, 1985 - October 1, 2001).

Responsible for all Air Force communications and information plans, architectures and processes. Leads Air Force-wide concept development and implementation of communications and information services and solutions. Ensures communications and information system architectures meet operational needs. Provides staff support to Air Force Chief Information Officer. Reports directly to HQ USAF--selectively manned.

Developed and implements policy for organizational alignment, structure, and manning of all Air Force communications and information activities to meet Air Force mission needs. Articulates communications and information organizational policy and actions to DOD agencies and Air Staff organizations. Provides expertise in the development and continued integration of information management and the communications-computer career fields.

Awards and Honors

2012 John Hope Service Through Education Award, Penn State University College Chapter of NAACP. (October 1, 2011 - October 1, 2012).

RESEARCH

Development Activities Attended

"Multicultural Affairs Directors Retreat," The Council of Multicultural Affairs, Penn State University, Multicultural Affairs Directors Retreat, 0 credit hours. University Park, PA, Centre. (September 9, 2015).

"Retreat," Dean Hardin, Penn State University, College of Communications, College of Communications Executive Committee Retreat, 0 credit hours. University Park, PA, USA. (August 17, 2015).

SERVICE

Service to the University

College

Administrative Support Work

Assistant Dean and Lecturer, Diversity Student Club Advisor, Advisor. (January 1, 2014 - January 1, 2015).

Department

Administrative Support Work

Office of Multicultural Affairs, College's Diversity Review Committee, Diversity Advocate. (January 1, 2014 - January 1, 2015).

Responsible to the dean, College of Communications, for the oversight of the day-to-day administration of the College's diversity initiatives.

Enhances each of the objectives to improve diversity in undergraduate and graduate student recruitment, retention and graduation.

Enhanced diversity among faculty and staff members.

Accomplished each of the goals identified in the Diversity Strategic Plan. Refer to web site description in www.equity.psu.edu/Framework/Updates/index.asp

University

Committee Work

College's Diversity representative, Council of College Multicultural Leaders and Administrative Council on Multicultural Affairs, Administrator. (January 1, 2014 - January 1, 2015).

Responsible to represent the College of Communications at all meetings conducted by the CCML and ACMA. Provide updates to the dean of the college and members of the executive committee when appropriate on matters centered on multicultural affairs at Penn State University.

CCML- Developed a highly effective network between multicultural affairs directors among the twelve academic colleges. Primary accomplishments for this council was to establish a more effective means for college representatives to address their college's diversity strategic plan objectives with the latest techniques and developments in the multicultural affairs arena. Best practices were reviewed and presented throughout the year.

ACMA- Key campus council to provide the latest developments in multicultural affairs through guest lecturers, diversity cultural programming and develops monthly updates on interim Vice Provost for Educational Equity and new President's goals for current and future multicultural affairs initiatives.